

A Leger tapestry from Jane Kahan Gallery sits above a Cassina sofa and coffee table complemented with Moroccan rug from Doris Leslie Blau. One of the most sought after pieces of the townhouse is the taupe silk mohair 1970's original Eames club chair - a clever play against the faux silver leaf Venetian plaster.

A museum quality tapestry from Jane Kahan Gallery contrasts a slightly less precious yet gorgeous rug from ABC Carpet. The Corbusier cowhide chair meshes with a neoclassical coffee table from Housing Works and a sofa bed that turns into a king size bed from Niedermaier. Christopher Hyland window treatments.
